NEW MILITARY SCHOOLS AUTHORIZED

On the proposal of the Minister of National Defense, General Svoboda, and seconded by the Minister of Education, Dr Zdeuck Nejedly, Professor of Arts and Sciences, the government decided on 17 February to establish two military schools at the beginning of the 1949-50 school year. They will be named for Jan Zizka of Trocnov. One school will be built 1 the Czech Provinces and one in Slovakia, but both will serve the entire country. Youths of both areas will study together.

Preference will be given to the sons of workers and farmers, and orphans of participants in the People's War for Liberation, of Partisans, and of members of foreign armies. The school will accept only utudents who are outstanding mentally and physically and who are politically conscious. Graduates of the schools will form an elite officers' corps.
